Mrs. Henry Burk of Union street is very sick with the grip

The condition of Mrs. C. L. Saltee is considered somewhat improved this morning.

Miss Carrie Hornback is ill with the grip at her home in East Second street, Sixth Ward.

Among the many attractions that are to appear at the Washington Opera-house none comes more highly endorsed for its intrinsic worth and sterling merit than does "The Little Detective" headed by that most versatile actress Miss Dorrit Ashton, supported by an excellent company of unusual strength. Aside from being a literary gem the play is absolutely without flaw from an historic standpoint. It is replete with the very acme of dramatic climaxes, interspersed with brilliant bits of clever comedy, the whole forming a complete production of a variety seldom seen on the stage today. The management has spared neither pains nor expense in getting together a production that not only pleases the eye, but will remain long in the memory of those who see it. One night only Wednesday, February 19th.

STARS AND STRIPES

National Emblem to Undergo a Change in July Next

July 1st there will have to be a change in the United States Flag, the addition of Oklahoma having made another star necessary.

Just how to arrange the Flag without spoiling the looks of the field of stars is puzzling more people than those officials whose business it is to see that the change takes place. At present the stars are arranged in rows of seven and eight, alternating, a total of six rows.

Dr. A. M. Martin of Bloomville, Ohio, has presented the President with a design and asked him to refer it to the proper authorities.

Dr. Martin describes the plan as a geometrical design, consisting of five arcs in combination, the centers of the arcs to be the apices of a regular pentagon. The stars are to be placed uniform in distance one from the other, and stars for new states shall be added in the field by extending the arcs.

In plainer language, the design is that of a big star, with five points, the center being also occupied by a few stars.

PETRY ESTATES

Attorney Cole Enters Suit in the Interest of Cincinnati Parties

Saturday Attorney A. D. Cole, representing G. W. Petry of East Third street, Cincinnati, filed suit in the Mason Circuit Court for settlement of the estate of Mary J. and J. C. Petry. The estates are estimated to be worth $80,000. Charles Petry, a deceased brother, was the founder of the fortune, having started with a few hundred dollars. His first business venture was conducting a 50c store in Sutton street; then as a member of Sulzer, Petry & Co., cigar manufacturers, later carrying on the manufacture of cigars for himself, in which he was eminently successful, and at the time of his death had amassed a fortune, estimated at $60,000 or more.

FORTY WAGONS

Loaded With Tobacco Nearly Blocked Union Street. For A. T. Co.

Yesterday Union street had the appearance of a tobacco mart sure enough. From Second to Forest avenue both sides of the street were lined with two and four-horse wagon loads of the weed waiting turns to be received at the American Tobacco Company's plant.

An even forty wagon loads were booked by the concern for the day and an army of men were employed receiving, assorting and getting it in shape to ship.

Two four-horse wagon loads were refused acceptance on account of being Equity tobacco.

There is considerable pooled tobacco being baled here and stored in Equity warehouse—owned by tenants who contemplate moving to other locations in the spring.

This monetary and industrial panic, which it is to be hoped has spent its full force throughout the United States, was not unexpected, but foretold and discounted months ago by thousands of far-seeing individuals who discern conditions by the inexorable laws of supply and demand and who intuitively understand things by the logic of inevitable human and physical change.

Nature never stands still, and yet, paradoxical as it may appear, Mother Nature never changes, yet is ever changing, because—

"All are but parts of one stupendous whole."

Man, how like a god he sometimes appears, and yet how like thirty cents he really is when weighed in the great scales of absolute and inflexible Justice, integrity and virtue.

He goeth forth to the stock market with his big diamond shining like an electric headlight on the mountain express, and the next day he is admitted to full membership in the biggest club in the world—the Down-and-Out Club.

These transitions are natural and easy, because in the big game of business it is all a bucket-shop gamble, with the bulls and the bears fleecing the lambs, the strong devouring the weak, the survival of the fittest and the devil take the hindmost, etc.

It is all founded upon a false basis of right and wrong; a warped interpretation of the golden maxim: "Do unto others as you would have others do unto you."

In connection with the present billions state of the public credit and the jaundiced condition of the industrial situation, it is not amiss to exclaim "I told you so!" because as we state above, thousands saw the dark monetary cyclone rising up over the business horizon more than a year ago.

Here is an extract from an editorial taken from The Washington, D. C., Post of several months ago, and it is but one of many hundreds of such forecasts upon the business future. The Post says:

"Thoughtful Americans are beginning to agree in the conclusion that one of the conspicuous signs of the times, to those who are able to comprehend it, is the warning posted by nature that riotous extravagance in the United States has reached the limit of safety, and that thrift and economy must supersede old methods."

"This warning sign is seen on every hand; more prominently, perhaps, where ravaged forests and barren farms reveal the work of the slayer of economy, but evident in industrial conditions also. When Secretary Wilson pointed out that all the wheat land in the United States was under the plow, and that the yield would decrease unless the fruitfulness of the soil were carefully preserved, he signalized the turning point from youth to maturity in the material growth of this country."

FRANTIC WOMEN

Organic disturbances of the feminine system act like a firebrand on the nerves of women, often driving them fairly frantic.

A nervous, irritable woman is a source of misery not only to herself, but to all those who come under her influence. That such conditions can be entirely overcome by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is proven by the following letters. Mrs. Mary Wood, of Christiansburg, Tenn., writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I had the worst form of female troubles and my nerves were all torn to pieces; sometimes I suffered so much that it seemed as though I could not live. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and now I feel like a different person. Your medicine is worth its weight in gold, and I cannot say enough for your advice."

Mrs. Wallace Wilson, Thompsonville, Conn., writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I was all run down, nervous, and could not rest nights. Doctors failed to help me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored me to perfect health."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

McKNIGHT'S DEATH

Like a Warning Knell to Rattled Legislature.

NOMINAL SENATORIAL BALLOT.

Both Houses Adjourn Till Thursday Out of Respect to the Dead Legislator.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 17th.—Owing to the death of Virgil McKnight, it was agreed that the Senatorial ballot should only be a formal one today. Beckham, Bradley and Allen each received one vote.

The death of the Mason county Representative has been the one engrossing subject at the Capital and all attempt at legislation goes over until Thursday.

Resolutions were adopted in both Houses providing for an adjournment until Thursday.

The committee appointed by Speaker Gooch to accompany the body to Louisville, where the interment will take place, is as follows: Sullivan, Arnett, Klair, W. J. Jackson, Edmunds, Feland, Hannah, Harris, Sloan and Gooch.

The committee named to draft suitable resolutions is composed of Mueller, Lillard, Woodford, S. A. Smith and Jones.

Speaker Gooch says he will probably immediately call for an election in Mason county to elect a successor to McKnight.

In Mason county the law says that a special election can be held after ten days.

The Senate received a message from Governor Wilson, vetoing the stenographers bill, saying he deemed it unconstitutional.

A resolution adjourning the Senate until Thursday at 11:30 o'clock out of respect to the memory of the late Representative Virgil McKnight and providing for an escort committee of six men, was unanimously adopted. Senators Linn, Charlton, Rives, Sewell, Peters and Cureton were appointed as the escort committee.

Under the law, the calling of a special election to fill a vacancy in the House of Representatives during a session is delegated to the Speaker of the House. It is possible to call an election to be held in ten days. Due to the fact that Mr. McKnight, while elected as a Democrat, had failed since the hallooting for Senator begun, to vote for the party nominee, Governor Beckham, the effect his death will have on the Senatorial situation has already caused much speculation.

While the death of Mr. McKnight will result in one less vote for the Democratic majority in the House on all questions except the Senatorship, yet, on the other hand, Governor Beckham is strengthened to an extent in that the opposition to him is decreased by one vote, even though that one was a Democrat. With 138 members of the Senate and House voting it requires seventy votes on joint ballot to elect. With 137 members voting it will require but sixty-nine to elect Governor Beckham.

BURIAL AT LOUISVILLE.

The interment of Representative McKnight will occur tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock in the McKnight family lot in Cave Hill Cemetery, Louisville.

Mr. McKnight was a nephew of Mrs. Susan Masale of this city and of Miss Phoebe Marshall and Miss Mary Marshall of Washington and one uncle, Mr. Robert Marshall of Sardinia.

His brother, Mr. Martin McKnight, went to Frankfort yesterday to conduct the affairs of the funeral.

Mr. McKnight's death was quite unexpected. At 2 o'clock Monday morning Dr. Fish was hurriedly summoned.

The doctor hurried across the hall and found the Representative gasping for breath. His pulse showed that he was in a dangerous condition. He was fully conscious and seemed to know that he was deathly ill. He asked Dr. Fish immediately how his pulse was and to reassure him he was told that it was all right.

Dr. Fish gave him a quieting injection in the arm, threw open the window to allow more fresh air to come in and then he turned to his medicine case to find some other medicine. When he turned around Mr. McKnight was sitting up in bed, beating his fists against his chest and indicating that some fearful, choking

Mr. McKnight was serving his third term in the Legislature of Kentucky. He had previously served in the Legislature in Minnesota and at the same time with Governor John A. Johnson, who has been spoken of as the Democratic nominee for President, and in the Legislature of Texas.

Mr. McKnight was also a law partner of Colonel Robert Franklin when he was in Minnesota. He was the grandson of Martin P. Marshall, who for years lived at Washington, Mason county, and who was one of the most noted figures in Kentucky history. He was also related to all of the Marshalls of Kentucky and Virginia, who claim a direct descent from the Indian princess, Pocahontas.

His grandfather, Martin P. Marshall, was a first cousin of John Marshall, the first Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States. Mr. McKnight was a graduate of Center College and a lawyer by profession.

YOUNG MAN HAS NEW THEORY

Human Life Seems Centered In Stomach. All Else Is Secondary.

The immense success which has followed L. T. Cooper during the past year with his new preparation has exceeded anything of the kind ever before witnessed in most of the leading cities where the young man has introduced the medicine. Cooper has a novel theory. He believes that the human stomach is directly responsible for most disease. To quote his own words from an interview upon his arrival in an eastern city: "The average man or woman cannot be sick if the stomach is working properly. To be sure, there are diseases of a virulent nature, such as cancer, tuberculosis, diabetes, etc., which are organic, and are not traceable to the stomach, but even fevers can, in nine cases out of ten, be traced to something taken into the stomach. All of this half-sick, nervous exhaustion that is now so common, is caused by the stomachic conditions, and it is because my remedy will and does regulate the stomach that I am meeting with such success."

To sum the matter up—a sound digestive apparatus that is doing its full duty, getting every particle of vitality out of all food by transforming it to the bowels in a perfectly digested state—this above all else brings health."

Mr. A. C. Brock, chef of the Brock Restaurant, Market District, Boston, Mass., who is a staunch believer in Mr. Cooper's theory and medicine, has this to say: "I had chronic indigestion for over three years. I suffered terribly, and lost about thirty pounds. I was a physical wreck when I started this Cooper medicine, a month or so ago. Today I am as well as I ever was in my life. I am no longer nervous, my food does not distress me in the least, and I have a splendid appetite. I am gaining flesh very rapidly—in fact, at the rate of a pound a day. I would not believe any medicine on earth could have done for me what this has done. It is a remarkable preparation, and Mr. Cooper deserves all his success."

We recommend the Cooper preparations as being remarkable medicines. —T. J. Chenoweth.

Rivemen predict a stage of 55 feet at Cincinnati by Thursday.

The swell of the rise has passed Pittsburgh and Wheeling and the flood will not reach height predicted.

Several houses were undermined by the water at Pittsburgh and collapsed.

Gage marks 45.5 and rising.

The Ohio is falling at Pittsburgh at the rate of two feet an hour, the flood having been checked by the intense cold. It is estimated that the property loss will reach $2,500,000. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

BEACH HARGIS

Inherits $40,000 From His Father
Whom He Murdered—Will Be Indicted

JACKSON, Ky., February 17.—Circuit Court was convened here today with new faces in charge. The regular Judge, Robert Riddle, died a few days ago and James P. Adams, the Commonwealth's Attorney, has been appointed in his place and Kelly Kash has been appointed Commonwealth's Attorney.

A Grand Jury was selected and charged today, special stress being laid upon the facts of the murder of Judge James Hargis by his son Beach.

The will of Judge Hargis was offered for probate. It leaves $20,000 of his estate to his widow and provides for the remainder, about $80,000, to be equally divided between the son Beach, and the daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Hogg. Attorneys for young Hargis will claim temporary insanity.

CURE YOUR KIDNEYS.

Do Not Endanger Life When a Mayville Citizen Shows You the Cure.

Why will people continue to suffer the agonies of kidney complaint, backache, urinary disorders, lameness, headaches, languor, why allow themselves to become chronic invalids, when a certain cure is offered them?

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use, because it gives to the kidneys help they need to perform their work.

If you have any, even one, of the symptoms of kidney diseases cure yourself now, before diabetes, dropsy or Bright's disease sets in. Read this Mayville testimony:

Mrs. E. Bridge, of 206 West Third Street, Mayville, Ky., says:

"In March, 1900, I gave a testimonial recommending Doan's Kidney Pills. I had been troubled with a lame back and weak kidneys from girlhood and in my efforts to find a cure tried many different remedies, but without benefit until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, which I procured at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore. They went right to the cause of the trouble and as a result brought relief that led me to testify in their favor. I have never been without Doan's Kidney Pills in the house since. Every spring I take a box whether symptoms of kidney trouble are apparent or not, and in this way keep my kidneys in good condition."

WOMEN AT FRANKFORT

Mrs. Beckham Captivating—Tribute to Mrs. South and Miss Roberta Cox

Mrs. Kluemper in Sunday's Frankfort cor.
Courier-Journal.

"After all, it is the newspapers and the women who do the fighting in a political race of any moment," quoth a sagacious woman Sunday when she saw the picture of Bradley and Beckham in The Courier-Journal Magazine, standing side by side, with a quizzical smile on both faces.

"Do you suppose," she continued with fine scorn, adjusting her glasses and holding the page at arms' length, "that two women so deeply and vitally interested in a race could stand that close together without scratching out each other's eyes, do you?"

Right glad I am that I can tell that woman and the women of Kentucky that two women vitally interested in a race in which their male relatives are the chief factors can and do most and treat each other as royally socially as those two men.

It was, perhaps, not three weeks ago that Mrs. J. C. W. Beckham, Mrs. W. O. Bradley and her daughter, Mrs. John G. South, met in the station—all going to Louisville—and really so cordially and so brilliant was the conversation between the trio that I, a newspaper woman, elting in their midst and supposed to sniff a story in every wind that blows, forgot to even make a mental note of the circumstance and never would have thought of the matter a second time if the remark quoted had not been made.

Women, and especially the women of Kentucky, are not so narrow; their hearts are loyal, but their minds are moulded on a broad-gauge. That morning "dress" and "babes" were the chief topics of conversation. Both Mrs. Beckham and Mrs. South are two of the best dressed women at the Capital.

At the last assembly ball Mrs. Beckham, who chaperoned her young sister, Miss Hettie Belle Fuqua, was more than usually handsome in white broadcloth, elaborately trimmed in some sort of lacy applique. With this becoming costume she wore a big red mushroom hat, and was as smilingly sweet as any high school girl and not a whit older looking. You would never suspect her of being the mother of two children, the eldest attending the kindergarten in the public school.

Mrs. Beckham is a victim of the skating fad and is at the Coliseum every day in a short gray skirt and red chapeau. She and her little daughter, Eleanor, are both graceful skaters and make an attractive picture skating around together.

Mrs. South is also ridiculously young looking for a wife and model housekeeper. She is on the petite order and is to be seen frequently at the rink in a short skating costume of white cloth.

At the last Assembly ball to see the good time each was having in her own particular way, you would never have known that the father of one and the husband of the other were enacting the part of "Greek meeting Greek."

A dyed-in-the-wool Republican, who is also a dyed-in-the-wool Chesterfield, leaned over to the writer at the last Assembly ball and whispered, "who is that pretty woman in white with the red hat?" Teasingly another woman in the group got up and holding out her hand said: "It's Mrs. Beckham—let me introduce you."

"Heavens, no?" replied the man without taking his eyes off the unconscious subject of their talk. "Heavens, no!" he repeated, gallantly, "if I met her I'd disgrace myself by voting for the Democratic nominee."

MISS ROBERTA COX.
Mrs. South left Friday for Washington, D. C., accompanied by Miss Cox, where she goes to be present at the organization of the Society of the Sponsors of the Battleships of the United States, or a title equally as long and impressive.

While in Washington Mrs. South and her charming companion will be guests at the New Willard. During their sojourn in Washington they will attend the Army and Navy reception, and Vice President Fairbanks is going to look personally after these two Kentuckians in a social way.

Miss Cox is the only child of the Lieutenant Governor. She is tall and willowy, and if not beautiful she is so near it that you think so anyway, and when she displays a roughish dimple in the left cheek you are willing to swear that she is. She jumped at once into popularity at the Capital and has been feted, dined and winced to her heart's content. Last week a gentleman hailing from Louisville, who might make an impression on most any girl with his superb physique, ordered for Miss Cox a big bunch of Parma violets. After giving the name of the young lady to whom he wished the flowers sent, he retraced his footsteps to say to the porter, "She is at the Capital Hotel, you know."

"Yes, boss," grinned the darkey. "I specks I know—I took her flowers now about twice a day, sar, since she done come to Frankfort."

Mrs. J. H. Samuel, accompanied by her husband, Dr. J. H. Samuel, was removed this morning to Dr. Sprague's retreat for nervous people, at Lexington.

The trial of Henry T. Duncan, formerly Mayor of Lexington, on the charge of criminal libel, has begun at Lexington. The charge grew out of a card written by Mr. Duncan in which he alleged that the county's books had been juggled with to make a showing for the administration.

The United States Internal Revenue Commissioner in answer to a letter of inquiry says that the Government will not interfere with "Locker Clubs," organized in prohibition districts, by which each member furnishes his own liquor supply, so long as a drink is not transferred to a fellow-member for a consideration.

DOCTOR ADVISED USE OF CUTICURA

After Other Treatment Failed—
Eczema in Raw Spot on Baby
Boy's Face Lasted for Months—
Cried with Pain when Washed.

ECZEMA WAS CURED AND HAS NEVER REAPPEARED

"Our baby boy broke out with eczema on his face when one month old. One place on the side of his face the size of a nickel was raw like beef-steak for three months, and he would cry out when I bathed the parts that were sore and broken out. I gave him three months' treatment from a good doctor, but at the end of that time the child was no better. Then my doctor recommended Cuticura. After using a cake of Cuticura Soap, a third of a box of Cuticura Ointment, and half a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent he was well and his face was as smooth as any baby's. He is now two years and a half old and no eczema has reappeared. I am still using the Cuticura Soap; I think it is the finest toilet soap I ever used. I keep my little girl's hair and face cleansed with it too. I am so thankful for what Cuticura has done for us. Mrs. M. L. Harris, R. F. D. 1, Alton, Kan., May 14 and June 12, '07."

EDDYVILLE OUTRAGE

Arouses Entire State—Governor Willson to Exert Every Effort to Arrest Guilty Parties

EDDYVILLE, Ky., February 17.—Although there is not one of the eleven men whipped brutally by a mob of Night Riders just after midnight Sunday morning even remotely connected with the tobacco business, the mob in its warning to County Judge W. L. Crambaugh told him that he would get the same treatment at some future time unless he manifested his friendship for the Tobacco Growers' Association. Whether or not this was intended to make it appear that the mob was in the interest of the Tobacco Growers' Association when it was simply a mob out to wreak its pleasure without reference to tobacco or anything else especially, is conjectural.

The victims included Judge Knicker of the Police Court; Cecil Woods, former Town Marshal; J. H. Robinson, a saloon porter; Jeff Fralick, who conducts a livery stable, all white, and seven Negroes, including John Holway and George Brewster. All these were taken from their homes or places of business in their night clothes or made to strip to the waist, and were whipped with rawhide whips until lacerated and bleeding all over the bodies.

Hundreds of shots were fired and many homes riddled with bullets, that of Judge

Rucker suffering the greatest damage, window shutters being torn from their hinges and the property otherwise mistreated in addition to having all the windows and doors shot to pieces. The announcement by the riders that they have more work to do has naturally left the town and community in a state of terror.

Night riders visited the farm of Lige Nichols, near Fredonia, Tenn., and set fire to his crib and stable, destroying farming implements and two mules. Nichols is a non-association man.
